

EPK - Jane Fair/Rosemary Galloway Quintet

Expect an extraordinary breadth and depth of material from the original material offered, contemporary musical landscapes which remain engaging and accessible.

ABOUT JFRGQ

- Co-led by composer/instrumentalists Rosemary Galloway and Jane Fair, the quintet released a debut CD 'Waltz Out' in 2002.
- In 2011, the creative chemistry between the members of this group led to new, provocative and engaging material, resulting in an exciting new CD release, 'Playin' Jane'.
- The group has received support from both the Canada Council and the Ontario Arts Council, and has performed at major jazz festivals and clubs across Canada.

THE MUSICIANS - Saxophonist Jane Fair and Lina Allemano, trumpet, bring two distinct approaches to the music that interact to produce both beauty and the unexpected. Drums and bass, Nick Fraser and Rosemary Galloway, provide inspired support and acute responsiveness to match the flow of ideas. Nancy Walker, pianist, brings harmonic and rhythmic fire to the musical feast.
